

May 17, 2019

Rebecca Seawright

Assembly Member Rebecca Seawright and Mountaineer Vanessa O'Brien accept the "Fearless Girl Award" in Memory of the Late Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro

Assembly Member Rebecca A. Seawright received the "Fearless Girl" Award presented in memory of the late Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro by Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney. Ferraro's daughter, Donna Zaccaro, presented Seawright with the award.

"It is a special honor to be recognized with an award associated with one of the most fearless leaders of American history and the first female candidate for vice president representing a major political party in a national election. Congresswoman Ferraro often said, 'There are no doors we cannot unlock. We place no limits on achievements.' Those words remain embedded in our hearts and minds as we strive to elect more women to offices at every conceivable level."

Other distinguished honorees included author and actor Heidi Schreck, Holocaust Survivor and education speaker Judy Altmann, and mountaineer and explorer Vanessa O'Brien.